Venice, Dec. 5. N. S.

SIgnior Alvizio Mocenigo, who is appointed by this Republick to be their Ambaſſador to His Majeſty of Great-Britain, was this week made a Senator, to qualifie him for that Employment; and he is preparing for his Journey to England. We have an Account from Napoli di Romania, that the Venetian Fleet, commanded by General Delfino, met with a very violent Storm in their return thither from the Archipelago, during which, 4 or 5 Men were killed on board the Admiral by a Clap of Thunder. Four of the Venetian Men of War which ſuffer'd moſt in the late Engagement with the Turks, were ordered to return home. They write from Dalmatia, that all Things continue very quiet on that Frontier, and that General Mocenigo had reinforced the Garriſons in thoſe Parts, and ſent his Troops into Winter Quarters. The Letters from Rome ſay, the Pope has appointed a Congregation, to Regulate ſeveral Points of Ceremony concerning the Queen-Dowager of Poland's Reception and Entertainment at that Court.

Warſaw, Dec. 7. Count Ledlinisky, the Emperor's Envoy here, has received an Anſwer from the King of Poland (now at Berza in Lithuania) to the Emperor's Letter, wherein he accepts the Mediation offered by his Imperial Majeſty, for accommodating Matters between this Crown and the Elector of Brandenbourg, in relation to the Buſineſs of Elbing, which it's hoped will at laſt be amicably adjuſted. The Letters from Berza ſay, that the greateſt part of the Senators of the Great Dutchy of Lithuania being aſſembled at Grodno, to endeavour a Reconciliation between the Houſe of Sapieha and the Gentlemen of the contrary Party, who were come to that Place, and pretended to hold a General Diet, the King, upon his arrival at Berza, deſired they would repair thither, that he might Adviſe with them concerning the moſt effectual Means to quiet the Diſturbances of that Province; Whereupon the Treaſurer of Lithuania, the Palatine of Wilna, and ſome others of the Senate, waited upon the King; But the reſt excuſed themſelves, and deſired Leave to ſtay at Grodno to finiſh the Buſineſs they were engaged in, which he accordingly granted, and the Council appointed to meet at Berza, is for this Reaſon put off till the 9th Inſtant. Prince Sapieha has likewiſe writ to the King, to beg his Pardon for not having waited upon him, and to aſſure him of his Fidelity, offering, in caſe the oppoſite Party will ſend Deputies to His Majeſty, to come himſelf and Treat with them, in order to put an end to theſe Differences. In the mean time the ſaid General continues encamped with the Forces under his Command near Grodno, as the Sieur Oginsky does likewiſe with a great number of the Gentlemen of his Party, but they abſtain from Hoſtilities. A Body of the King's German Troops are likewiſe come into the Neighbourhood of that Place.

Carlowitz, Nov. 30. The Conferences which were begun here on the 13th Inſtant, have been continued ever ſince with good Succeſs; On the 28th paſt a Truce of 25 years was concluded between the Emperor and the Ottoman Port, each ſide keeping what they are in Poſſeſſion of at preſent; 'Tis likewiſe agreed, that on the 22d of March next, Commiſſioners from each Empire ſhall meet on the Frontiers to ſettle the Limits, and that in the Month of May, the Emperor and the Grand Signior ſhall ſend an Ambaſſador to each other. The Imperialiſts demanded, that Count Teckeley ſhould be delivered up to them, and that the Holy Sepulchre at Jeruſalem be reſtored to the Chriſtians; to which the Turks anſwered, That having no Inſtructions as to theſe Particulars, they would acquaint the Sultan therewith, and expect his further Orders; The Muſcovites being contented to keep ſtrictly to the Condition propoſed for the Foundation of this Negociation, Viz. That each ſide keep what they have, their Treaty was ſettled on that foot; As to Poland, The Turks offer to leave to them all Podolia, as 'twas enjoy'd by that Crown in the year 1672, and to reſtore the City of Caminiec after having diſmantled it, but the Polanders inſiſt upon the Reſtitution of Caminiec at 'tis at preſent, in conſideration of which, they offer to quit to the Turks ſome Places in Moldavia and Walachia; For what concerns the Venetians, the Turks offer to leave to them the Morea, and the Fortreſs of Lepanto, but would have this laſt Place demoliſhed, which the Venetians ſeem unwilling to conſent to, inſiſting to keep Lepanto in the Condition 'tis now in; But 'tis believed, theſe Points relating both to the Poles and Venetians will be ſoon Adjuſted.

Vienna, Dec. 10. Count Marſigli, one of the Emperor's Miniſters for Treating a Peace with the Turks, arrived here the 8th Inſtant from the Congreſs at Carlowitz, from whence we have likewiſe Letters of the 2d, which bring an Account, That a Truce of 25 years was concluded between the Emperor and the Port; There remained ſtill ſome Points in Diſpute relating to our Allies, but ſuch Progreſs was already made towards Adjuſting them, that 'twas not doubted but the Truce would be ſigned by all Parties before the 17th of this Month. Prince Eugene of Savoy, who commanded the Imperial Army in Hungary, having left the new Fortreſs near Arat in a good poſture of Defence, and ſent his Troops into Winter Quarters, is returned hither, with Prince Charles of Vaudemont, who ſerved under him during the laſt Campagne. The Queen-Dowager of Poland, and the Cardinal d'Arquien her Father, are ſet out from hence on their Journey to Rome. She has ſtay'd here about a fortnight, and during that time, has been entertained by their Imperial Majeſties with a great deal of Reſpect and Kindneſs; The Venetian Ambaſſador waited on her before her Departure, and made her a Compliment upon her Intentions to paſs through the Territories of the Republick of Venice. The Princeſs of Hanouer, who is to be married to the King of the Romans, will depart from Modena, where ſhe is at preſent, about the beginning of January next; She intends to make ſome ſtay at Trent or Inſpruck, and is expected here about the 20th of February. The Prince of Dietrichſtein, High-Steward to his Imperial Majeſty, died ſome days ago; there are a great many Pretenders to this Office, among whom, thoſe who ſeem to have the beſt Intereſt are, the old Count Harrach, who was lately Ambaſſador in Spain; Count Khinsky, and Count Aernberg, Burgrave of Bohemia. Two of the Commiſſaries, who had inſpection over the Emperor's Magazines in Hungary, have lately been condemned to Die, and executed, for ſelling great quantities of Meal to the Turks, and otherwiſe embezelling the Stores they were entruſted with; They confeſſed before their Death, That the burning of the great Magazine at Raab about 3 years ago, which was gentrally thought to have happened accidentally, was occaſioned by themſelves, on purpoſe to conceal their having diſpoſed of the Ammunition there to their own Profit.
